Mandalay National Wildlife Refuge Announces Drawing for Alligator Harvest Tags

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service will select two individuals to harvest alligators from Mandalay National Wildlife Refuge (Refuge) in Terrebonne Parish, LA. Upon meeting eligibility requirements and submitting an application form, permittees will be selected by lottery. Applicants can not be drawn for consecutive lotteries.

The lottery application submission deadline is Friday, July 25, 2025. All applications must be submitted by email or postmarked by 3:30 p.m., on the above date and mailed to:

Mandalay NWR Alligator Permit Lottery
1725 Willow St.
Franklin, LA 70538

The drawing will be held on July 30, 2025, at 10:30 a.m. at the Refuge Office, 600 Main St, Room 112, Franklin, LA 70538. Applicants do not have to be present for drawing and will be notified by phone.

Each permittee will receive 43 alligator tags and be assigned a specific harvest area on the Refuge. Only one application per person will be accepted. Permits are non-transferable. The Service shall receive 40% of the total proceeds from alligator sales.

Persons interested in receiving a lottery application should visit Mandalay NWR website, Mandalay National Wildlife Refuge | U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service \(fws.gov\), or contact Brian Pember at 985-860-6681 or email brian\_pember@fws.gov.
