Executive Order

It is hereby ordered that Dungeness Spit, an arm of land extending from the north shore of the State of Washington into the Strait of Juan de Fuca, as the same is shown upon the official plats of survey of townships thirty-one north, ranges three and four west of the Willamette Meridian, on file in the General Land Office, and as segregated by the broken line upon the diagram hereto attached and made a part of this order, be and the same is hereby reserved and set apart for the use of the Department of Agriculture as a refuge, preserve and breeding ground for native birds. This order is not intended to abrogate the orders creating military and lighthouse reservations located in part upon the same lands, nor shall it in any manner interfere with the use of the lands for military or lighthouse purposes, but rather, in addition to such uses, shall insure the protection of the native birds therein.

It is unlawful for any person to hunt, trap, capture, wilfully disturb or kill any bird of any kind whatever, or take the eggs of such bird within the limits of this reserve, except under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Warning is expressly given to all persons not to commit any of the acts herein enumerated, under the penalties prescribed by Section 84 of the U. S. Penal Code, approved March 4, 1909 (35 Stat., 1088).

This reservation to be known as Dungeness Spit Reservation.
