Subject: Dungeness Bay shellfish permit issue (briefing for you)
Date: Wednesday, January 12, 2022 7:44:49 AM

FWS would like to brief you/your team on the issue of Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe access to its state shellfish farming lease in Dungeness Bay, in an area administered by the National Wildlife Refuge System. The suggestion for briefing the BIA RD came up in a discussion between Rose Petoskey and Scott Aikin last week, and Rose said she would like to listen in on the briefing.

We would like to brief you Friday of this week, or early next week, if that works for your schedule. I am copying Chanelle (who is out of office today but will be back tomorrow): she will schedule this if you'll let her know timeslots that work for you. We can provide an overview of the matter in about 15 minutes, with another 45 for questions, clarifications, discussion.

We look forward to a briefing: please let us know timing that works for you.

Robyn
