Morning Hugh,

Thanks for the latest version. I had one correction for the oyster farming history. It had to do with bullet 1994. This was the first time the refuge instituted the closure of Oct 1-May 14 but this was for public use/access. Oyster farming continued. So I deleted this bullet.

Also to bullet 2007, I added the text "and explicitly instituted closure period Oct 1-May 14."

Attached is revised version (renamed 6.2.22) as I know you are on the road.

Thanks and please take care,
Christine

Nanette and Christine,

I am hoping the Director's Office can find another time for this briefing. That said, I am going to prepare for the possibility that it goes forward. If so, I may ask one of you to run the powerpoint, as it is possible I may have to join the call from my phone at the airport (I can still deliver the talking points). Just in case this is necessary, the current version of the powerpoint is attached (Christine - I think I incorporated most of your comments, but I did leave the one slide on previous oystering operations to address up front some of the points we know the JST have raised).

Thanks,

Hugh

Roslyn,

I see that this briefing was rescheduled for tomorrow morning at 10:00 ET. Unfortunately, I will be at the airport preparing to board a plane at that time. I hate to be the cause of further delays, but is there an alternative on time Friday?

Thanks,

Hugh

Would 5/31 at 4p work for everyone?
