

EIS Project Plan

South Farallon Islands Invasive House Mouse Eradication Project

Reason for Action: The Service proposes to eradicate invasive house mice from the South Farallon Islands in order to restore natural ecosystem functions.

Project Goal: To develop an EIS associated with the Project.

Roles and Responsibilities: Table 1 provides a list of EIS Project Team members. The bulleted items below outline each member's responsibilities.

Table 1. EIS Project Team

Roles	FWS Personnel	Contact Information
Senior Executive Service Member	Paul Souza Regional Director, Pacific Southwest Region	916-414-6469 paul_souza@fws.gov
Project Manager	[Name] [Title]	[Phone Number] [Email]
Subject Matter Expert	Gerry McChesney Refuge Manager	510-792-0222 x222 gerry_mcchesney@fws.gov
Solicitor	Veronica Rowan Solicitor	916-978-5694 veronica.rowan@sol.doi.gov
Contractor	Gabrielle Feldman, enviropolicysolutions [Title]	[Phone Number] gabriellefeldman@enviropolicysolutions.com
Planners	[Name] [Title]	[Phone Number] [Email]
Field Office Staff	[Name] [Title]	[Phone Number] [Email]

- Senior Executive Service Member
 - [Briefly identify member's role]
- Project Manager
 - [Briefly identify member's role]
- Subject Matter Expert
 - [Briefly identify member's role]
- Solicitor
 - [Briefly identify member's role]
- Contractor

- [Briefly identify member's role]
- Planner(s)
 - [Briefly identify member's role]
- Field Office Staff
 - [Briefly identify member's role]

Schedule: The Project's NOI was published on or before August 31, 2017. Therefore, the Final EIS and Record of Decision will be completed no later than April 27, 2019. See schedule for detailed internal deadlines.

Signed:

[Senior Executive Service Member]

Date

[Project Manager]

Date

[Subject Matter Expert]

Date

[Solicitor]

Date

[Contractors]

Date

[Planners]

Date

[Field Staff]

Date